CONTENT

Bologna is a town for the pleasure of the eyes... red for its beautiful sunsets on the red roof tiles, spiked with belltowers, with its historic centre around San Petronio's tower. It is beautiful to look at it during the various seasons, with different lights alternating during the day. The photographer can capture images directly from the top of the hills surrounding the town or from the towers of the historic centres: from any point the town appears in its splendour.

AUTHORS

Franco Fontana

(Modena, 1933) is an internationally renowned photographer. Since 1968 Fontana has exhibited and published all over the world and currently over 60 museums have permanent exhibitions of his work.
