Art lovers are quite used to paying eye-watering sums of money for beautiful books. But this particular example is quite staggering indeed. A publisher has just released a special three volume book entitled The Sistine Chapel. New photography of Michelangelo's frescos has enabled the publishers to reproduce 1:1 scale images of the wall paintings. They also claim that the images are '99.4% accurate in terms of colour'.* The entire set will cost no less than $22,000.
